

M.A. IN PARTICIPATORY DEVELOPMENT
(MAPD)

Term-End Examination
December, 2015

MDS-005 : PARTICIPATORY PROJECT MANAGEMENT

Time : 3 hours

Maximum Marks : 100

- Note : (i) Answer all questions.
(ii) All questions carry equal marks.
(iii) Questions 1 to 4 are essay type and Question 5 is short notes.

-
1. (a) 'One of the most fundamental concepts in project management is the concept of project life cycle.' Elaborate and explain the term project management. 20
- OR
- (b) Critically examine how opportunity studies, pre-feasibility and feasibility studies and technical analysis ensure success of the project. 20
2. (a) Discuss the concept of Results Based Management (RBM) and its role in project cycle. Highlight the salient features and prerequisites of RBM. 20
- OR
- (b) Critically examine the concept of project proposal and its different components. 20

3. (a) Discuss the key points for effective application of participatory planning. Explain the different methods and techniques of participatory planning. 20

OR

(b) Explain with a suitable illustration use of participatory planning in a rural and urban context. 20

4. (a) Examine the role of monitoring and evaluation in context of projects and tools used. 20

OR

(b) Discuss the role played by participatory monitoring and evaluation in development and its principles. 20

5. Short notes : (Any two)

(a) Developing micro plans 10

(b) Steps and techniques in PME 10

(c) Stages of outcome mapping 10

(d) Project management and reporting system 10

